ACTIVITIES

Recipes Inspired by Books

This activity can be as simple or as difficult as you decide to make it. You could just bake your favorite chocolate chip cookie recipe and say it was inspired by If You Give a Mouse a Cookie. Or, perhaps, you could attempt a flaming Christmas pudding from Harry Potter and the Sorcerer's Stone. It's up to you.

This source is by no means a comprehensive list, but it is a good start and contains a variety of recipes: <https://www.food.com/ideas/childrens-book-recipes-6304#c-19639>

There are hundreds more recipes that are just a Google search away.

Handwashing Technique

There are probably many videos out there that could teach you proper handwashing technique. We found this video from Dr. Pimple Popper to be very helpful: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ldiqall_EEk

Classical Music Suggestions

We bet you all have heard more classical pieces than you think. The following videos are mashups of many classical pieces. See how many pieces/composers you can recognize.

Service Activities

There are plenty of opportunities to serve right now.

- Call/facetime a neighbor or family member who might be lonely.
- Thank your local grocers and healthcare workers. Seriously.
- Pick up groceries for older, immunocompromised or sick family members and neighbors.
- Consider sharing some of your excess toilet paper with those who cannot find any.
- You could rake someone's lawn, pull weeds, sweep porches/walkways, wash exteriors of windows, etc.
